FEBRUARY 9, 1999

Visalia is a vital, growing city in the heart of the San Joaquin Valley, nearly equi-distant from Los Angeles — three and-a-half hours south, and San Francisco — four hours north. Outstanding physical characteristics of the community include the remnants of the oak forest that once covered the area, and the magnificent backdrop of the Sierra Nevada Mountains, eleven miles east of the city. Our Central California location, warm climate, abundant recreational opportunities and close proximity to Sequoia and Kings Canyon National parks are a perfect complement to your next event.

Convention Center Location Features:

- Downtown location
- Minutes from off-site performing arts theatres
- 5 miles from the airport

Visalia Location Features:

- Easy access from I-5, Hwys. 99 & 198
- Centrally located between Los Angeles and San Francisco
- Regularly scheduled airline service at Visalia Municipal Airport
